

Ignite your creative thinking by conferencing at The Plantation, a stunning 21 acre estate located on Queensland's Sunshine Coast. The Plantation, a previously private property that has opened its doors to the meetings market, combines state-of-the-art technology with modern comfort and secluded privacy. It is a boutique meeting experience for up to 80 delegates, with luxury accommodation in eight suites and all the facilities of a much larger venue.

A short drive from Sunshine Coast resorts and only 15 minutes to Noosa's bustling Hasting's Street, The Plantation at Cooroy is the perfect choice for your next conference, group meeting, team-building day or planning retreat. It is situated only 90 minutes from Brisbane Airport and 30 minutes from the Sunshine Coast Airport.

When your delegates arrive they'll discover an elegant and secluded property that allows the outside world to fade away in preparation for focussed thinking.

All conference packages include:

- Morning and afternoon tea
- Tea, coffee and cookies throughout the day
- Conference Stationery
- Bottled water and mints
- Flipchart
- Conference seating
- Wireless broadband internet access
- On-site host to assist with your specific requirements including set-up and break-down, welcome and registration of delegates, and coordination of transport
- Access to other spaces around The Plantation for meals and break-outs.

One of the benefits cited by clients is the quality and variety of lunch and post-meeting menu options. Choose from informal, boardroom style, barbecue, buffet, working and gourmet sit-down lunches, each prepared by chefs working with the highest quality fresh ingredients and local produce. Please see our full list of menus. (Minimum numbers apply with some menus). Costs are per person.

The property is wheelchair friendly with accessible bathrooms and ramps, while conference rooms are all on one level with no stairs.

The Plantation features three meeting spaces and various break-out areas.

The Meetings Room can be set up boardroom style, theatre style or more informally with a modular deep linen lounge and comfy chairs. This state-of-the-art meeting space provides wonderful natural light with French doors leading onto the checkerboard wrap-around verandas – perfect for delegate catering and breaks. Hire includes a lectern with light, and mobile PA system with cordless microphone. A large plasma television, DVD and Bose Entertainment Lifestyle system with surround sound complete this offering. Conference organisers can choose from conference seating for 80 delegates, classroom seating for 50 delegates or lounges for 8 delegates.

The Board Room caters to small groups with comfy lounge chairs creating an intimate meeting nook. Bi-fold French doors along the length of the room open onto an outdoor veranda, manicured hedges, a classic fountain and grassy grounds. A plasma television with Austar, and Bose Entertainment Lifestyle System with DVD and CD is included. This space is perfect for small meetings where your delegates are staying on-site at one of the luxuriously appointed guest rooms.

The Summer House is an outdoor, all-weather option. This 103m² structure sits adjacent to the property's sandstone house and looks out onto the stunning Paulownia plantation. It seats 100 theatre style, but has the flexibility for a number of different set-ups. Hire includes a cordless microphone, mobile PA system, and lectern.

In addition, break-out areas include 186m² of checkerboard verandas, the fountain and courtyard, the Paulownia plantation, the "Old Paddock" and several tucked-away areas dotted around the property.

Events and activities

Pavilion marquees can be erected in various areas for informal conferencing, pre or post-conference dinners or as an additional area for team building activities.

The Plantation offers a selection of activities at a per delegate price, including:

- Bocce – Challenge your Managers and staff to a game of Bocce on the grass
- Croquet – Making its mark in England and Ireland in the 1950's, croquet became very popular because it provided the first opportunity for women to participate in an outdoor sport on an equal basis with men. Challenge your staff to a play off!
- Yoga – A qualified instructor can help start the day with an hour of deep breathing and introduction to the benefits of yoga in our quiet surrounds
- The Plantation Wellness Package – in conjunction with award winning “Ikatan Spa”, enjoy return transfers and three hours of individual beauty therapy.
- On site Pampering – treat your staff to a facial, massage or beauty treatment delivered in the Summer House or the privacy of a guest room
- Conference Massage – therapists move discreetly between the group and offer seated massage during the conference or during breaks
- The Plantation Corporate Cooking School – brings our team of chefs to the kitchen for informal or formal cooking classes. Attendees can join in or learn via demonstrations and then enjoy the meal afterwards
